

ADVANTAGE

Live Unconventionally

EMBRAER QUARTERLY
VOL 3 ➤ 2018

Michael Poliza Experiences

Acclaimed photographer presents
Africa from above.

The Millennial Impact

How a generation is transforming the luxury travel industry

Embraer leads the way

New deals, new audiences and new records

TRAVEL GEMS

Whether you're looking for a private jet food tour or an adrenaline-filled yachting expedition, here is a round up of our top suggestions around the world to inspire your inner traveler

PRIVATE JET FOOD TOUR OF SPAIN WITH MIMO & VICTOR

Pioneering food and travel company Mimo, whose cooking schools and gourmet shops are based in Spain and Portugal, are merging food and travel to create a Spanish travel experience like no other. Over the course of four days, guests can take the luxurious next-generation Embraer Phenom 300E via leading private jet charter marketplace Victor, or their own if they prefer, and visit three stunning locations: Sevilla, Mallorca and San Sebastián, choosing exactly how much time they spend in each. Mimo's team of personal guides, connoisseurs of each region's finest food cultures, will take visitors on an unforgettable culinary journey. On offer are a tapas tasting tour, hyper-local cooking classes, Vega Sicilia wine tasting and an olive oil experience that includes a visit to a rural finca, following the olive-oil making process from tree to bottle. This adventure is perfect for the ultimate foodie who is keen to gain a unique, deeper-than-the-average experience into Spain's delicious, rural food traditions within beautiful, luxurious surroundings. mimofood.com, flyvictor.com

SCOTT DUNN'S BEAUTIFULLY CURATED EXPERIENTIAL TRAVEL COLLECTION

"Seriously Special – The Experiences" is the name of international luxury tour operator Scott Dunn's new offering of travel adventures. Trips categorized under themes such as Sport and Adrenaline, Food and Wine, Wildlife and Wilderness have been collated into a stylish coffee table book, setting off the experience of booking such a trip just right. One of the standout tours includes a unique sailing and skiing itinerary in northern Norway aboard the extravagant Firebird yacht. Here, a personal mountain mentor will guide guests through areas off the beaten track to take in spectacular views of sea, snow, mountains and sky. A truly once-in-a-lifetime escapade, skiing the Norwegian Arctic Circle is an adventure viewed as a bucket list item by skiing enthusiasts around the globe. scottdunn.com

BASE CAMP CHANNEL ISLANDS' SHIP-BASED JOURNEY

For those seeking a fresh approach to luxury travel, look to Base Camp's Channel Islands sailing experience. The four-day tour is specially designed to bring people together with a like-minded sense of adventure and love for health and well-being. The trip begins in Los Angeles on the National Geographic Sea Lion ship, which anchors at hot spots along the way, including East Anacapa Island to explore the area's 60 endemic species found nowhere else in the world. Each day incorporates exercise classes to complement the day's activities—think winding down with yoga or hiking amongst the Torrey pines, one of only two naturally occurring groves in the world. expeditions.com

AYANA'S FIVE STAR HOTEL AND ACCOMPANYING PHINISI SHIP

A one-hour flight from Indonesian island Bali brings you to the idyllic fishing town of Labuan Bajo, where 13 suites and 192 guest rooms inspired by light and open living are strategically situated within stunning views of the Kukusan Island. In addition to the AYANA Komodo Resort experience, guests can embark on a one, two or three-night voyage onboard the AYANA Lako di'a, a 54-meter-long and 11-meter-wide, nine-bedroom phinisi ship that will explore the surrounding islands. For the more adventurous travelers, activities including diving, snorkeling, as well as a day trip on the hotel's catamaran or speedboat are also recommended. ayana.com

INTIMATE GROUP TOURS IN FIVE UNIQUE COUNTRIES BY AMPERSAND TRAVEL

Ampersand Travel thrives in creating luxurious, tailor-made journeys. For their new experiential travel collection launch, small groups are invited to "Seven Unusual Escorted Journeys," a selection of new destinations ranging from medieval Irish castles to family-run farmhouses in South Africa. Ampersand Travel's experts on the ground are renowned in the area, which is exactly the case for their tour of Rajasthan, taking place during India's iconic festival—The Festival of Lights. Writer and South Asia specialist and social maestro Cosmo Samuel Brockway will take guests from Udaipur to Delhi, exploring the "Venice of the East," drinking expertly mixed cocktails at the City Palace, sailing across Lake Pichola for a candlelit dinner and of course a nights stay in Delhi's Taj Mahal Hotel. ampersandtravel.com

WORDS Lara Piras. IMAGES Clockwise from left © Mimo, © Scott Dunn, © Taj Lake Palace